

Marble Muzviyo née Mutereko

Born: Friday, 9 September 1949

Married to Timothy Muzviyo in 1965

She was a loving mother to 7 children — 6 girls and 1 boy — a proud grandmother to 25 grandchildren, and a great-grandmother to 16 great-grandchildren.

A woman with a heart of gold who welcomed and accommodated everyone around her. She was deeply loved and respected — a woman of unwavering faith. A staunch and devoted Christian who remained committed to her beliefs until her last breath.

She went through many health challenges in her lifetime. She had a bilateral hip replacement, and with strength and grace, she overcame it. In 2018, she was diagnosed with cancer and bravely went through all the necessary treatments.

Despite her illness, she continued to live with faith and hope. She lost her husband, Timothy Muzviyo, in October 2020, yet continued her journey with strength, taking her medication religiously and enduring the pain with courage.

Whenever she was in pain, she was known for singing songs of faith, including “Tinoramba Tichinamata”, “MuKristu Usanete”, “Ndinoshamiswa Kwazvo”, and “Jesu Wakanaka.”

She fought bravely but eventually lost her battle with cancer on Monday, 25 November, at 4:30 a.m.
